

There are also several groups other than Amish that have settled in South America. A few things that the Amish do of course are farming, building and worship. They continue to build healthy communities doing just a few of the same simple things! These organizations are some of the more private ones forming.

-

<http://bigstory.ap.org/article/6ae6f43e6a1244c7b66db5ff20d55710/amish-growth-extended-south-america-settlements-last-year>